

ATTACHMENT NO. 2

Traffic Operations & Management Standing Committee (TOMSC)

April 15th – 17th, 2005

Ottawa, Ontario

Presentations

- Don McLean, DMD consultants, presented the final draft of the Guide for the Design of Roadway Lighting (Project 250). The Guide has been approved by TOMSC.
- Geni Bahar, Itrans Consulting, presented an overview of the report Transverse Rumble Strips.
- Milt Harmelink, Harpar Management Corporation, presented an overview of the report Synthesis of Practices for Work Zone Safety Speed Management.
- Jim Gough, Canadian ITE, presented an overview of the report Canadian Capacity Guide.
- Michael Haynes, Go for Green, presented the case for more walking in The Business Case for Active Transportation. A group to encourage more walking in our daily life.

Projects

#	Title	Final Report
201	Signal Warrants	Approved
226	Traffic Signal Guidelines for Bicycles	Publication Spring 2005
233	Advance Amber Flashers	Publication Spring 2005
250	Roadway Lighting Design Guide	Approved
253	Optional Use of Pedestrian Countdown Timers	Fall 2005
264	Emergency Detour Route Sign	Approved

New Projects

#	Title	Chair
268	Pavement Markings for Multiple Left Turns	Dave Banks
269	Assessment of the Need for and Development of a Standard for Lane Drop Pavement Markings for Canada	Richard Chow
270	Load Restriction sign	Richard Chow
271	Non-Hospital Emergency Care sign	Greg Iwaskow
272	Integration of Safety into the MUTCD	Dave Banks
273	Canadian Capacity Guide	Mike Skene
274	Signal Conspicuity	Jim Keefe

Projects considered but rejected:

Flashing Red at Pedestrian Crossings

TAC publications (Spring 2005):

Centerline Rumble Strips
Bridge Repair
Synthesis of Practices for Work Zone Safety Speed Management.
Transverse Rumble Strips
Synthesis of Roundabout Practices

Regional Issues

- Region of Waterloo concern of snow build-up on traffic signal lenses.
- Alberta concerned about retroreflectivity for signs and pavement markings.
- Region of Waterloo concern of deer reflectors (referred to www.deercrash.com)

Next Meeting: Calgary, ALB, Quebec, September 16th – 21st, 2005